ARTICLES

ARTICLE 1.0 NAME AND EMBLEM

1.1. The name of the organisation, hereinafter referred to as the “College of Surgeons” or the “College”, shall be the “College of Surgeons of East, Central and Southern Africa incorporating the Association of Surgeons of East Africa” and be also known by the acronym “COSECSA-ASEA”.

1.2. The Emblem of the College shall be the logos of ASEA and COSECSA as founded in 1949 and 1999 respectively, placed side by side with “COSECSA” on the left and “ASEA” on the right.

ARTICLE 2.0 THE VISION

To be the reference surgical body in the region of East, Central and South Africa and beyond

ARTICLE 3.0 THE MISSION

The mission of the College of Surgeons is to promote excellence in Surgical Care, Training and Research.

ARTICLE 4.0 AFFILIATIONS

4.1. The College encourages the establishment of National Surgical Associations and Societies in the constituent member countries and these bodies shall be affiliate corporate bodies of the College of Surgeons.
4.2. The College of Surgeons shall be a constituent college of the East, Central and Southern Africa College of Health Sciences and be affiliated to any other Colleges or Associations, within and without the region of East, Central and Southern Africa, as the Council of the College deems fit.

ARTICLE 5.0 OBJECTIVES

The objectives, for which the College of Surgeons is established, are:

5.1. To promote, organise and conduct postgraduate education and training in surgery and related specialties and allied disciplines and to promote the highest level of skills, attitudes and efficiency in their practice.

5.2. To promote and encourage research in surgical and allied arts and sciences

5.3. To promote the integrity of the surgical and allied professions and to cultivate and maintain the highest ethical standards and professional conduct

5.4. To arrange and conduct examinations of candidates for admission to the College of Surgeons and/or such other examinations in the various branches of surgery and allied arts and sciences as may from time to time be deemed appropriate

5.5. To award Membership and Fellowship or equivalent recognition to medical practitioners having special knowledge in one or other branches of surgery or allied arts and sciences

5.6. To bring together Fellows, Members and Associate Members of the College of Surgeons periodically to advance the science and practice of surgery and its allied disciplines and for fellowship

5.7. To promote cooperation and work with bodies with similar aims and objectives.

ARTICLE 6.0 COMPOSITION OF MEMBERSHIP

The composition of membership of the College shall reflect fully the specialties and sub-specialties within the broad professional area of surgery and any other specialties that may be approved by the College from time to time.

ARTICLE 7.0 CONSTITUENT MEMBER COUNTRIES

All Countries in East, Central and Southern Africa are eligible for constituent membership.
7.1. A country can become a constituent member only when the Fellows and Members of the College resident in that country show adequate interest in the activities of the College and request constituent country membership status.

7.2. Any country in the region may have resident Fellows and Members of the College. Such Fellows and Members shall appear under the umbrella of one of the constituent member countries through which they pay their dues to the College.

7.3. Council at its discretion may then recommend to the Annual General Meeting constituent member status for that country.

7.4. Once accepted the country shall pay a country membership entry fee as determined by Council.

ARTICLE 8.0  MEMBERSHIP

For the purpose of registration and in general, unless and until otherwise lawfully determined, the number of Fellows, Members, Associate Members and Affiliate Members of the College of Surgeons shall be unlimited.

8.1.  FELLOWS [FCS]

The College of Surgeons shall comprise the following categories of Fellows:

8.1.1. FOUNDATION FELLOWS

They shall be persons who were admitted as Fellows of the College on its inauguration and who possess qualifications entitling them to be registered in their field of practice of surgery as per Article 6.0 above.

8.1.2. ORDINARY FELLOWS

They shall be Medical Practitioners who have satisfactorily completed their Higher Surgical Training and have passed the prescribed examinations in surgery and related specialties of the College of Surgeons, or have been awarded a Fellowship by election, having satisfied the Council of the College that they possess qualifications entitling them to be Fellows of the College.

8.1.3. HONORARY FELLOWS

They shall be professionals of high distinction in the Medical and Surgical Professions and such other eminent persons, whether or not members of the Medical profession, as the College of Surgeons may in its absolute discretion decide to honour.
8.1.4. OVERSEAS FELLOWS

They shall be surgical specialists practicing outside the constituent member countries of the College of Surgeons.

(i) Surgical specialists working on contracts in the constituent member countries of the College shall be eligible to local Fellowship if they meet the election criteria and shall apply for fellowship through the respective country representative.

(ii) On completion of their local contracts shall revert to Overseas Fellow status if they wish to maintain their Fellowship of the College.

8.2. MEMBERS

The College of Surgeons shall comprise the following categories of Members:

8.2.1. MEMBER-Specialist [MSCS]

They shall be Medical Specialists who have satisfactorily completed their specialist Surgical Training in Institutions other than the College of Surgeons and elected into Membership having satisfied the Council of the College that they possess qualifications entitling them to be Member-Specialists of the College.

8.2.2. MEMBERS [MCS]

They shall be Medical Practitioners who have satisfactorily completed their Basic Surgical Training and have passed the prescribed membership examinations in surgery and related specialties of the College of Surgeons.

8.2.3. ASSOCIATE MEMBERS

They shall be Medical or Dental Practitioners who have commenced their postgraduate training in surgery, or allied professions. Candidates for admission as Associate Members shall be proposed and seconded by Fellows of the College in writing on prescribed forms and accompanied by supporting letters from the proposer and seconder. The Council of the College shall carry out election of Associate Members.

8.2.4. AFFILIATE MEMBERS

They shall be health professionals who have made such a contribution to the practice of surgery as the Council of the College may deem acceptable.
ARTICLE 9.0  ELECTION OF FELLOWS AND MEMBERS

9.1.  All elections to membership of the College shall be by the Council of the College.

9.2.  An individual seeking election to Fellowship of the College shall be proposed and seconded by two fully paid up Fellows in good standing with the College.

9.3.  All criteria categorically stipulated in the by-laws for eligibility of membership or fellowship must be fulfilled.

ARTICLE 10.0  REGISTER OF FELLOWS AND MEMBERS

10.1.  A register shall be kept of names and addresses of all Fellows and Members of the College and their email and telephone numbers.

10.2.  Subject to the Articles and By-laws of the College, the Council shall have the power to remove the name of any individual from the register, provided that no name shall be removed there from, except pursuant to a resolution passed by a majority of at least two thirds of the whole number of Members of the Council and that at least twenty eight days notice of the meeting and this purpose be sent to the Fellow whose name it is proposed to remove.

ARTICLE 11.0  STATUS, RIGHTS, DUTIES AND OBLIGATIONS APPLICABLE TO ALL FELLOWS AND MEMBERS

11.1.  Persons qualified in accordance with the Articles, By-laws or Regulations of this constitution may, if the Council deem fit, be admitted as Fellows or Members of the College after paying such registration fees and signing such declaration as may be prescribed from time to time.

11.2.  With the exception of Honorary Fellows, all Fellows and Members shall pay such annual subscriptions as shall be prescribed by Council from time to time.

11.3.  Fellows who attain the age of 65 years and retire from practice may apply to Council for a waiver of the annual subscription.

11.4.  All Fellows shall enjoy full rights, benefits and other privileges, as may from time to time be declared by the Council and shall be subject, mutatis mutandis, to the obligations and burdens howsoever from time to time declared by the Council. Overseas Fellows are however not eligible to hold office of the College.

11.5.  All Members and their subcategories shall enjoy full rights, benefits and other privileges, as may from time to time be declared by the Council and shall be subject, mutatis mutandis, to the obligations and burdens howsoever from time to time declared by the Council. They shall however not be eligible to vote and to be voted for at any meeting of the College.

ARTICLE 12.0 PRIVILEGES DEPENDENT ON PAYMENT OF REGISTRATION FEES AND SUBSCRIPTIONS

12.1. No Fellow or Member shall enjoy any of the privileges of fellowship unless they have paid their registration fees and until they have paid their annual subscriptions and arrears thereof (if any) and have fulfilled such other requirements as may be laid down or provided for in these clauses.

12.2. Fellows shall consequently not be capable of exercising their respective voting rights unless they have paid all annual subscriptions due from them.

ARTICLE 13.0 LIST OF DEFAULTERS

13.1. The Council shall from time to time cause a list to be published of persons who are in default under Articles 11.0 and 12.0 and who are thus not entitled to exercise their rights and privileges therein referred.

13.2. Any Member or Fellow who has failed to pay his dues for a period of two consecutive years shall be subject to review of his membership by the Council. If the said Council determines that such member should be dropped from membership, then he shall be given a written notice that he will be dropped from membership unless his account is paid in full within six (6) months of the mailing of the said notice which shall be sent by electronic mail or through the respective country representative.

13.3. A Fellow or member failing to pay in full his dues within the given six-month (6) period shall be automatically dropped from membership.

13.4. The Council shall be empowered in its discretion upon payment of all outstanding amounts due to the College, to reinstate a Fellow or member as the case may be, any person who has ceased to be one by reason of the provision of this rule.

ARTICLE 14.0 CESSATION OR TERMINATION OF FELLOWSHIP OR MEMBERSHIP

14.1. A Fellow or Member as categorised in Article 8.0 shall cease to be a Fellow or Member under the following circumstances:

(i) If by notice in writing to the College one resigns.

(ii) If one’s name is erased from the register of the Medical Regulatory body in any of the member Countries.
(iii) If by resolution of the Council, passed by a majority of at least two thirds of the Fellows of the Council present – being not less than one fourth of the full Council – one’s Fellowship or Membership be terminated provided that all the Articles and By-laws of the College regarding removal from the College Register are fully complied with.

14.2. Any person who has ceased to be a Fellow or Member, as the case may be in terms of this Article, shall no longer be designated as such and shall cease both directly and indirectly, expressed or implied, to hold himself or herself as being a Foundation Fellow, Fellow, Honorary Fellow, Member, Associate Member or Affiliate Member as the case may be, and in case of his/her disregard of this provision, the College shall be entitled to apply to any court of law of competent jurisdiction for an appropriate interdict or injunction against that person with costs of the proceedings.

14.3. A person so striped of membership or fellowship shall cease using the designation (and any abbreviation thereof) to which he became entitled upon enrolment as a Fellow or Member as the case may be.

ARTICLE 15.0 COUNCIL OF THE COLLEGE OF SURGEONS

There shall be a Council composed of Fellows of the College.

15.1. The Council shall consist of the President, Vice President, Secretary General, Assistant Secretary General, Treasurer, the three Chairmen of the College standing Committees elected under the terms of Article 26.2 (iii) of this constitution, the Registrar, two Country Representatives from each of the constituent countries of the College, the Overseas Fellows’ Representative, the Editor of the East and Central African Journal of Surgery and the immediate past President.    v. Confirmation and signing of the minutes of the last meeting.

   vi. Matters arising out of the minutes of the last meeting.

   vii. Business announced with the notice of the meeting in the order shown in the notice, unless that order is changed with the agreement of the majority of members attending.

8. ORDER OF ADDRESS

   i. The Chairman shall conduct the meetings as he deems fit.

   ii. At an extraordinary General Meeting as per Article 29.2 held on request of Fellows, the Chairman shall call upon those who signed the requisition, to state the business for which the meeting was called before a proposal from any Fellow is received.

   iii. Every Fellow, in speaking, shall respectfully address himself/herself to the Chairman and no one shall interrupt another in speaking without the Chairman’s consent.

9. VOTING

   i. Unless otherwise specifically provided for by the Articles and By-Laws, a vote on any question may be taken by ballot, by roll call or by show of hands as those present at the Meeting may decide.

   ii. Unless otherwise provided by the Articles and By-Laws, all questions shall be determined by a simple majority of votes.

   iii. The Chairman for the meeting, shall, in every question, have one vote as an ordinary Fellow, and, thereafter, shall have the casting vote, as Chairman, when the votes are equal.
CHAPTER THREE
BY-LAWS
THE COLLEGE OF SURGEONS OF EAST CENTRAL AND SOUTHERN AFRICA

(1) CONFLICT WITH ARTICLES

These By-laws shall be construed so as not to conflict with the Articles and in the event of such conflict the Articles shall prevail.

(2) THE COMMON SEAL

The Common Seal of the College shall consist of the head of a Zebra set over crossed scalpels, with an open book above and with the date 1999 to its sides, set within a circle of gold surrounded by the name of the College set within a circle of red.

The Secretary General shall have custody of the Seal. The President and/or the Secretary General shall sign every instrument to which the Seal is affixed.

(3) THE SECRETARIAT

The Secretariat of the College shall be at such place as shall be determined by the College of Surgeons on the recommendation of the College Council.

(4) ALTERATION OF THE BY-LAWS

Any motion proposing a new By-law or amendment to, or alteration in, or repeal of, an existing By-law shall be presented at an Annual General Meeting of the College, and the terms of the motion shall lie on the table until the next meeting and its terms shall be stated in the billet. To become a law, it must be approved by two thirds of the Members and Fellows who vote.

(5) ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING

The business to be transacted at an Annual General Meeting shall be:

(i) Such business as by the Statutes or by the Articles or by the By-laws shall for the time being be appointed to be transacted at such meeting and

(ii) To consider any motion brought forward by the Council or by any individual Fellow.
(6) ELECTION OF THE COUNCIL

(i) Notification of vacancies

Not later than on the first day of October of each year during which there is to be an election, a notice shall be given of the forthcoming election, inviting nominations for the vacancies consistent with the provisions of the Articles of the College.

(ii) Election process:

Every vacancy in the number of elected members of the Council shall be filled in the following manner:

(a) Every candidate for membership of the Council shall be a Foundation Fellow or Fellow and shall be nominated in writing by at least two Foundation Fellows or Fellows. It shall not be competent of a candidate to accept nomination of more than one post at the same time.
