BENEFITS PACKAGE FOR FELLOWS/MEMBERS/ASSOCIATES IN GOOD STANDING WITH THE COLLEGE.

As Fellows/Member/Associates, you are ipso facto an ambassador of the College and we take great pride in all of those who have helped COSECSA develop during its formative years to date. There are benefits for Fellows, Members and Associates of the College.

These are:

- Fellows/ Members/Associates are given priority over others for opportunities in training, research grants and for continuous professional development.
- On-line recognition of Fellows/Members/Associates of the college on the COSECSA website
- Subscription to the College newsletter, keeping them up to date with the latest news, research and findings in surgery in the region.
- The use of the post-nominal MCS (ECSA) and FCS (ECSA)
- Access to college online facilities, including full access to international library and journal portal facilities.
- The prestige of being a COSECSA member is enormous in the surgical fraternity
- Eligibility to apply to the faculty of examiners
- Eligibility to be elected to council or any other College senior position.
- Eligibility for appointment as a trainer
- Eligibility for CPD registration and points
- Eligibility for first-hand information on International, regional training opportunities.
- Eligibility for opportunities in surgical specialized courses.
- Provision of networking space for surgeons internationally through annual scientific conferences, monthly newsletters and the East and Central African Journal of Surgeons.
- Eligibility to enjoy favorable discounts on training courses and scientific conferences

All of this is in addition to the service provided publicly by COSECSA such as the East, Central and Southern African Journal of Surgery.
