

The British Journal of Surgery Society

Call for Applications

COSECSA-BJS LECTURERSHIP

The College of Surgeons of East Central and Southern Africa (COSECSA) is pleased to invite applicants for the BJS Lectureship to be delivered during the 26th COSECSA Annual Scientific Conference in Lilongwe, Malawi.

This lecture is intended to promote surgery by providing a platform for sharing impactful ideas, experiences, innovations, and research that contribute to advancing surgical care, education, policy, and systems strengthening within the region and globally. It is a result of the ongoing collaboration between the COSECSA and the BJS.

The selected lecturer will receive EUR 1,500 as a token of appreciation. This will be presented at the 26th COSECSA Annual Scientific Conference in Lilongwe, Malawi on 3rd – 4th December 2026.

ELIGIBILITY CRITERIA

- Be a COSECSA Fellow in good standing
- Have demonstrated contributions or a strong interest in advancing surgery through clinical practice, education, research, innovation, advocacy, or leadership
- Be available and able to travel to Malawi and present

APPLICATION PROCESS

Applicants should submit:

- A curriculum vitae (CV)
- A short summary of the proposed lecture topic comprising of
 - Title of the Lecturer
 - Summary of Work done
 - Relevance and Significance to surgery

Submit your documents through the link: <https://forms.gle/R9eyVPHjyVBuwCQHA>

Deadline by 30th July 2026, late applications will not be considered.