

COSECSA – Intuitive Foundation TRAVEL AWARD

The College of Surgeons of East, Central and Southern Africa (COSECSA), with support from the Intuitive Foundation, is pleased to invite applications for the 2026 COSECSA-Intuitive Foundation Travel Award. The award aims to support trainees and fellows with an interest in research and innovative findings to disseminate their work at the COSECSA Annual Scientific Conference. Submitted topics must be relevant to surgery, and applicants should demonstrate their longer-term interest and engagement in global surgery research.

Successful applicants will receive support for travel and accommodation to attend the 26th COSECSA Annual Scientific Conference, to be held in Lilongwe, Malawi, on 3-4 December 2026. Only applicants whose abstracts are accepted for presentation at the conference will be eligible for consideration.
